Box alone is insufficient), date of birth, Social Security number (or taxpayer identification number), telephone number and other information that will allow us to identify you. Without this information, we may not be able to open an account or process any transactions for you.

WAIVER OF SPOUSE'S RIGHT TO PRERETIREMENT DEATH BENEFITS (IF APPLICABLE)

You only need to have your spouse complete this section if:

1. you are married, AND
2. you wish to name a person or entity other than your spouse as primary beneficiary for more than 50% of the death benefit.

PLEASE NOTE: If you're married and you name a person or entity other than your spouse as primary beneficiary for more than 50% of the death benefit or the percent specified by your employer plan, then your spouse must properly consent to waive his/her preretirement survivor death benefit under your employer plan and/or ERISA in order to put your nonspousal beneficiary designation into effect. Generally, waiving spousal rights is available if you are age 35 or older. If you're under age 35 and wish to designate someone other than your spouse as beneficiary, please contact your benefits office.

CONSENT BY SPOUSE (MUST BE WITNESSED)

I am voluntarily and irrevocably giving up my right to a qualified preretirement survivor death benefit. I recognize that any preretirement death benefit payable under these annuities and/or mutual funds held under my spouse's employer plan will be paid to the beneficiaries as described in this form.

The date of your spouse's signature must be the same or later than the date you sign your enrollment form. Your spouse's signature must be notarized or witnessed by a plan representative.

Signature of Spouse Date (mm/dd/yyyy)

Social Security or Tax ID Number Birth Date (mm/dd/yyyy)

Signature of Notary Public or Plan Representative Date (mm/dd/yyyy)

SIGN YOUR FORM

By completing this form, you are directing your employer to allocate funds under your employer’s plan to TIAA or CREF group annuities and/or to mutual funds and other investment options offered by TIAA-CREF or by other investment providers. All of your rights under these funding vehicles are subject to the terms of your employer’s plan. Your employer, or other plan fiduciary, may decide to cease offering any of these funding vehicles as allocation options under the plan and, should your employer or other plan fiduciary decide to do so, you may be required to transfer your accumulations in such plan funding option to another plan funding option.

If your plan offers the TIAA Traditional Annuity, then subject to the terms of your employer’s plan, cash withdrawals and transfers from the TIAA Traditional Annuity are currently not subject to a surrender charge. If such a charge is imposed in the future, the charge would apply only to subsequently remitted premiums including any amounts transferred from the CREF accounts, the TIAA Variable Annuity Separate accounts or the mutual funds after the charge is imposed. The amount and value of any accumulation units transferred from any account within a TIAA Variable Annuity Separate account may be affected by redemption charges imposed by the investments in which the account invests. The accumulations in and benefit payments from the CREF accounts, the TIAA Variable Annuity Separate accounts, and the mutual funds and other investment options are variable and not guaranteed; they depend on the investment performance of these accounts. Distributions from 403(b) plans before age 59½, severance from employment, death, or disability may be prohibited, limited, and/or subject to substantial tax penalties. Different restrictions may apply to other types of plans.

Your beneficiary designation will apply to your TIAA and CREF annuities and to the mutual funds and other investment options for which TIAA keeps records. Under your employer’s plan, your spouse has the right to a death benefit. If the plan is subject to ERISA, your spouse is entitled to at least 50% of the death benefit specified by the plan. If the plan is not subject to ERISA, your spouse is entitled to the percentage stipulated by the plan. Your spouse must consent to any beneficiary designation that doesn’t meet this requirement by completing the “Waiver of Spouse’s Right to Preretirement Death Benefits.”

In accordance with the terms of your employer’s plan, fees associated with the administration of the plan may be deducted from accumulations held on your behalf in the TIAA or CREF annuities or in any of the mutual funds and other investment options.
