INVESTMENT ELECTION

In addition to your deferral election above, you will also need to provide instructions with respect to how your Plans' accounts will be invested in the available funds within the TIAA or Fidelity programs. To make your investment election you must log into the TIAA or Fidelity program site (depending on which of the two you decide to use).

If you do not choose an investment option, your account will be invested with TIAA in the default investment option, which is the T. Rowe Price Retirement Date Fund that corresponds to your estimated date of retirement. Please see the enclosed Default Investment Option notice for additional information.

Roth Designation

Roth contributions are made with after tax dollars (money upon which income tax has been assessed). Future distributions from your Roth contributions are generally not subject to income tax provided that a five-year aging requirement has been satisfied and one of the following conditions is met: separation from service, attainment of age 59 ½, death, or disability.

This agreement shall be legally binding and irrevocable as to both Chapman and Participant while employment continues; however, either party may change or terminate this agreement as of the end of one month, so that it will not apply to salary subsequently earned, by giving at least thirty days written notice to any other.

If the participant terminates employment with Employer, or if Employer terminates, or terminates participation in the Plan, this agreement shall automatically terminate.

Chapman shall have no liability whatsoever for any loss suffered by the Participant

- a) With regard to his or her selection of a deferred annuity contract or of mutual fund shares, or
- b) By reason of the Employer's transmittal of contributions, provided they are transmitted in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

The Participant understands that

- He/she shall be responsible for checking to be sure that these elections are being implemented,

Authorization

By signing this election form, I understand that I am authorizing the payroll deduction of the amount that I have elected each pay period and that my election will remain in effect until I revoke or change my election by executing a new election. I also confirm that I understand the terms of the Plan, as stated in the Summary Plan Description that I have received, and other conditions and limitations communicated to me that affect my elections, and that the terms of the Plan may change from time to time. I have consulted with my personal tax advisor or taken other appropriate steps to determine what portion, if any, of my deferrals to designate as Roth contributions.
