CWU retirement benefits updates

Central Washington University (CWU) is updating the Central Washington University Retirement Plan (CWURP) and Central Washington University Voluntary Investment Program (VIP) to help you pursue your retirement goals.

The changes will begin Dec. 19, 2025, and are expected to be completed the week of Jan. 26, 2026.

The what, when and how of the retirement plan updates

Updates to the Central Washington University Retirement Plan (CWURP) and Central Washington University Voluntary Investment Program (VIP)

The changes are designed to help you plan and save for retirement.

A single service provider (recordkeeper)

TIAA has been selected to deliver comprehensive retirement services at a reasonable cost. TIAA's role is to provide account access and track participant information. As a result of this change, your CWURP and VIP balances currently with Fidelity will be transferred to TIAA.

New accounts

If you currently have a balance in the CWURP and VIP with Fidelity, or are actively contributing to the CWURP and VIP with TIAA, you will be automatically issued one new TIAA account per plan. Log in or register for online access at tiaa.org/cwu after Dec. 19, 2025.

New retirement planning resources

TIAA offers robust online tools to help you on the path to retirement. In addition to these tools, you can receive personalized advice on the plans' investment options from a TIAA financial consultant at no additional cost to you.

Make sure to review the enclosed guide and Blackout Notice for important dates and information about the plan updates. You can make changes to your account and investment choices at any time.

No longer employed by CWU?

Although you aren't actively contributing to the retirement plans, please review the enclosed information to understand what's happening and how the changes may affect your account balances.

Important dates to remember

Dec. 19, 2025

If you currently have an account with Fidelity or you are actively contributing to TIAA, you will be automatically issued one new TIAA account per plan. Review and update your beneficiary and investments.

Any investment changes will become effective in your new account(s) for contributions beginning in January 2026.
