

June 8, 2018

Dear TIAA Participant:

Enclosed, you will find a ballot to be used in connection with an advisory vote in (i) the annual election of the TIAA Board of Trustees; and (ii) the compensation of the named executive officers disclosed in TIAA's Compensation Discussion and Analysis, including the summary compensation tables and related narrative disclosures, which can be found at tiaa.org/compensation. By its charter, the TIAA Board of Overseers, as the sole stockholder of TIAA, annually elects the TIAA Board of Trustees. However, the Overseers have chosen to seek the participation of participants through an advisory vote in the election of Trustees. This ballot informs the Overseers of the participants' views and plays an important role in the governance of TIAA. To assist participants in their advisory vote, we have elected to voluntarily comply with the relevant U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission proxy statement disclosure requirements by including, for each trustee nominee, a description of his or her experience, qualifications, attributes and skills that led the Overseers to conclude that the person is qualified to serve as a Trustee of TIAA. The following pages include this information along with the nominees' employment histories and directorships. This brochure also includes descriptions of the participant balloting process and TIAA's governance structure, philosophy and practices, including the TIAA Board of Trustees' independence requirements, leadership structure, role in the oversight of risk management, Trustee meeting attendance and committee structure. In addition, to enable participants to consider the nominees in the context of the entire TIAA governance structure, we have included similar biographical information for the members of the TIAA Board of Overseers.

The election is scheduled to be held in July 2018. Once elected, the Trustees will begin a one-year term, ending in July 2019. The Overseers encourage all participants to carefully review the information provided in this booklet regarding each trustee nominee and to participate in the election process by expressing your preferences for the election of Trustees. We also offer the opportunity to submit recommendations for future trustee candidates. Participants can recommend candidates for the TIAA Board of Trustees by accessing tiaa.org/tiaanominee or by sending recommendations to the Corporate Secretary's Office at the address below.

On this ballot, the Overseers are also providing participants an opportunity to endorse or not endorse our executive pay program on an advisory basis. TIAA was one of the first companies in the United States to voluntarily seek an advisory vote on its compensation policies before it became mandated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission for public companies. We urge participants to read TIAA's Compensation Discussion and Analysis, including the summary compensation tables and related narrative disclosures, which provide detailed information on the company's compensation policies and practices and the compensation of TIAA's named executives. TIAA's Compensation Discussion and Analysis is separate from this brochure and can be found at tiaa.org/compensation. Printed copies can also be obtained without charge by calling 877-518-9161 or by writing to the Corporate Secretary's Office at the address below.

In addition to the advisory vote on executive compensation, the Overseers also invite participants to provide comments regarding their views on TIAA's executive compensation at tiaa.org/executivecomp or by writing to the TIAA Board of Overseers c/o The Corporate Secretary's Office, TIAA, 730 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017-3206.

Although the advisory votes are non-binding, the TIAA Board of Overseers and the Human Resources Committee of the TIAA Board of Trustees value participant opinions and will consider the results of the votes and your commentary when making future decisions regarding the election of the TIAA Board of Trustees and concerning the executive compensation program, respectively.

You can vote by mail, by telephone or via the Internet. Voting instructions are enclosed. We must receive all ballots by 9:00 a.m. ET on July 16, 2018. Thank you for your advisory votes, nominee recommendations and feedback.

Sincerely,

Michael S. McPherson

Governance Structure of TIAA

TIAA's Governance Structure and the Advisory Votes

The stock of Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America ("TIAA" or the "Company"), a stock life insurance company, is owned by the TIAA Board of Overseers, a non-charitable corporation, which we refer to as "the Overseers." Most stock insurance companies have stockholders who seek a profit on their investment. In contrast, TIAA's stockholder, the Overseers, is a not-for-profit entity with a mission "to forward the cause of education and promote the welfare of the teaching profession and other charitable purposes." It seeks to accomplish its mission through TIAA, its wholly-owned subsidiary. Both the Overseers' charter and New York law require the Overseers, as the sole stockholder of TIAA, to elect the TIAA Board of Trustees (the "TIAA Board" or the "Board") and otherwise vote and administer the stock of TIAA.

TIAA's participants are not stockholders and do not have the right to elect the members of the TIAA Board. As a result, the advisory votes cast by participants do not have the same legal significance as votes cast by stockholders of a publicly-held company. However, the Overseers believe it is important that TIAA participants take part in the TIAA Board election process. Therefore, in keeping with its long-standing practice, the Overseers will consider the results of participant advisory votes in electing the TIAA Board.

The advisory vote on executive compensation, as disclosed in TIAA's Compensation Discussion and Analysis, also is not legally required or binding, but is an opportunity for participants to express their views directly to the Overseers regarding the compensation of certain members of executive management as approved by the TIAA Board. The Overseers strongly encourage participants to vote on this important topic.

Differences between the Governance Structures of TIAA and CREF

Although TIAA and the College Retirement Equities Fund ("CREF") share a common mission, they were created under different laws, have different legal structures, and are regulated by different government agencies. As a result, they are subject to different legal requirements with respect to corporate governance, and in particular with respect to the election of their Trustees. CREF is a non-charitable corporation, which is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Due to CREF's status as an investment company, CREF Trustees are directly elected by CREF's participants. Because CREF is a membership corporation under New York law, CREF also has members, its Board of Overseers, who have the right to change certain aspects of CREF's governance, such as the charter, constitution and bylaws. Pursuant to CREF's charter, CREF's members must be the same individuals who serve on the TIAA Board of Overseers.

Corporate Governance and Board Matters

Corporate Governance Philosophy

In accordance with the laws of the State of New York, the management of the property, business and affairs of TIAA is the responsibility of the TIAA Board. Like most organizations, the Board has delegated the day-to-day management of TIAA to its officers and employees. TIAA is a financial services company serving individuals who work in the academic, research, medical, cultural and government fields. TIAA offers a wide range of financial solutions, including investing, banking, advice and guidance, and retirement services that help customers reach their financial goals, in a manner consistent with TIAA's mission. In its oversight role, the TIAA Board is guided by this mission.

TIAA is committed to strong corporate governance policies and practices that are designed to maintain high standards of oversight, integrity and ethics. The chart below provides highlights of the Company's corporate governance practices as it relates to the TIAA Board. The remaining portion of this section provides an overview of TIAA's corporate governance practices, including the Board leadership structure, the criteria used in selecting trustee candidates, and the responsibilities of the Board and each of its committees.

TIAA's Corporate Governance at a Glance:

- Annual election of Trustees;
- All Trustees are independent other than the Chief Executive Officer;
- Annual Board, committee and individual Trustee evaluations;
- The Audit, Human Resources and Nominating and Governance Committees are composed entirely of independent Trustees;
- Independent Trustees hold executive sessions without management present;
- The independent Chairman has significant and clear responsibilities;
- The Trustees have adopted a set of Governance Guidelines that, along with the charters and key practices of the Board's committees, provide the framework for TIAA's governance;
- The charters of the committees of the Board clearly establish the committees' respective roles and responsibilities; and
- Mandatory retirement age of 72.

The Structure and Role of the TIAA Board

Board Leadership Structure. The TIAA Board is led by the Chairman, who is elected annually by the Board. Pursuant to the Company's Governance Guidelines (which are discussed below), the Chairman shall not be an employee of the Company. As a result, the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") are held by two different persons. The Board believes this leadership structure allows the Chairman to focus on the effectiveness and oversight responsibilities of the Board and permits the CEO to focus on the execution of the Company's strategy and the management of the Company. Significant business, regulatory, risk, financial, and compliance matters are brought initially to the attention of the CEO, who then communicates appropriate matters to the Chairman and the Trustees. Ronald L. Thompson was elected to serve as TIAA's independent Chairman for the 2018–2019 term.

The independent Chairman has the following responsibilities:

- Presides at all meetings of the TIAA Board;
- Presides at all executive sessions of the TIAA Board;
- Sets the agenda for meetings of the TIAA Board;
- Determines the information to be provided to the TIAA Board;
- Serves as liaison between the TIAA Board and other affiliated boards;
- Serves as ex-officio chair of the Executive Committee of the TIAA Board;
- Coordinates, with each respective TIAA Board committee chair, the maintenance of each committee charter, and with the TIAA Nominating and Governance Committee, the review of committee assignments and Board membership;
- Approves the TIAA Board meeting schedules and assures that there is appropriate time for discussion of all agenda items;
- Consults regularly with Trustees, the CEO and other key senior executives as to the quality, quantity and timeliness of information provided to the Board and the Board's decision-making process;
- Shapes the quality of TIAA Board discussions;
- Coordinates, with the Overseers, the periodic review of the Company's strategic plan and Trustee education sessions;
- Coordinates, with the TIAA Human Resources Committee, the annual performance review of the CEO and other key senior executives; and
- Coordinates, with the TIAA Nominating and Governance Committee, the Board and committee self-evaluations and individual Trustee evaluations.

Trustee Qualifications. The TIAA Board is composed of individuals who can contribute sound business judgment to Board deliberations and decisions based on their business, management, professional, academic, or governmental service experience. Board members generally have achieved a high level of success in their chosen fields, have uncompromised integrity and are able to fulfill their responsibilities as Trustees of TIAA without conflicts. The Company does not have a formal diversity policy concerning trustee nominations, but the TIAA Nominating and Governance Committee continually seeks to ensure a broad, diverse representation of academic, business and professional experience and of gender, race, age and geography.

Trustee Independence. The TIAA Board has adopted independence standards that meet the independence requirements of the New York insurance law and, on a voluntary basis, the New York Stock Exchange. The Board reviews the independence status of the Trustees annually and makes a formal determination about the independence of each Trustee. As of June 2018, the Board determined that fifteen of the sixteen current Trustees are independent within the meaning of the Board's independence standards. Roger W. Ferguson, Jr., TIAA's President and CEO, is not considered independent.

Board Meetings. The TIAA Board held nine meetings during 2017. Each Trustee who served in 2017 attended more than 75 percent of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board and the committees on which such Trustee served. In addition, the independent Trustees of the TIAA Board met in executive session (without management) at each regularly-scheduled Board meeting. Similarly, the Board committees (other than the Executive Committee) generally held an executive session at their regularly-scheduled meetings.

Committees of the Board. The TIAA Board has seven standing committees: (1) Audit, (2) Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility, (3) Executive, (4) Human Resources, (5) Investment, (6) Nominating and Governance, and (7) Risk and Compliance. Each committee, except the Executive Committee, operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, which charters are available on the Company's website at tiaa.org/public/about-tiaa/corporate-governance-leadership/tiaa-overseers-trustees. Each of the Audit, Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility, Human Resources, Investment, and Nominating and Governance Committees is composed solely of independent trustees. Each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and the Board has designated James R. Chambers, Donald K. Peterson and Lisa W. Hess as "audit committee financial experts" as defined by the rules of the SEC. The TIAA Board establishes ad hoc committees when it deems it necessary.

The following table lists the current membership of each standing committee and the number of meetings each committee held in 2017.

* Independent Trustee

† Members of the Real Estate Account Subcommittee of the Investment Committee (the "Subcommittee"). The Subcommittee held three meetings during 2017.

The primary responsibilities of each standing committee are summarized below and are set forth in more detail in each committee charter, and with respect to the Executive Committee, the Company's bylaws.

- Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities relating to the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, management's Internal Audit Division, accounting and financial reporting policies and practices, and internal controls.
- Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility Committee. The Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to corporate social responsibility and governance policies, reviewing guidelines for the voting of proxies by TIAA, and overseeing related matters and shareholder initiatives.
- Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is vested with the full powers of the Board between regularly-scheduled Board meetings. The committee is authorized to act for the Board on all matters except for those that are specifically reserved for the full Board under the Company's bylaws and New York law.
- Human Resources Committee. The Human Resources Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities through the implementation of sound compensation and personnel policies and practices.
- Investment Committee. The Investment Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by establishing the Company's investment policies and overseeing its investments and the investment activity of other accounts and funds held for the Company's benefit. The Committee also oversees the investment activities of certain asset management subsidiaries of the Company. The Real Estate Account Subcommittee is a subcommittee of the Investment Committee that appoints and oversees the performance of an independent fiduciary that is required in connection with the Company's real estate account.

- Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee nominates members of the standing and other committees of the Board, recommends candidates for election as Trustees, recommends Trustee compensation, and oversees the Board’s governance practices, including CEO succession planning, Board evaluations, the Company’s political contribution policies and charitable giving programs.
- Risk and Compliance Committee. The Risk and Compliance Committee (“RCC”) assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to (i) the design and implementation of TIAA’s enterprise-wide risk management framework, (ii) the review of management’s assessment of the Company’s risk profile, including the major risks facing the Company and associated mitigation plans, (iii) the promotion of ethical behavior and compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and (iv) the oversight of the TIAA Corporate Compliance Policy.

Board’s Role in Risk Oversight. The TIAA Board plays an active role, both as a whole and at the committee level, in overseeing the management of the Company’s risks. The Company has established an enterprise risk management (“ERM”) framework for identifying, aggregating and evaluating risk across the enterprise. Management is responsible for the Company’s day-to-day risk management activities, while the Board is responsible for:

- Approving the Company’s risk appetite, regularly reviewing the Company’s risk profile against its risk appetite and significant risk limits, and ensuring appropriate action is taken by management in the event of material breaches;
- Reviewing, monitoring and approving business strategies and major corporate and investment actions within the context of the Company’s risk appetite;
- Reviewing management’s assessment of major risks facing the Company and progress with related mitigation plans; and
- Overseeing the design and implementation of the ERM, compliance, ethics, and internal control frameworks and policies across the enterprise.

The Board established the RCC to assist in fulfilling its overall risk management and compliance responsibilities and oversight of the Company’s ERM framework. In addition to the RCC’s oversight, the Audit Committee, the Human Resources Committee, and the Investment Committee also exercise oversight over associated components of the ERM framework. The Board and/or its committees regularly receive reports, presentations and other information from TIAA management, including the Chief Risk Officer, the Chief Compliance & Ethics Officer, the Chief Auditor and other senior risk management personnel as well its independent registered public accounting firm.

Board Evaluation. The Board views self-evaluation as an ongoing process designed to achieve high levels of Board, committee and individual Trustee performance. The Board, through its Nominating and Governance Committee, conducts an assessment of the effectiveness of the full Board, each of its committees and each of its Trustees on an annual basis.

Trustee Orientation and Continuing Education. As part of TIAA's trustee orientation program, new Trustees are given presentations by members of executive and senior management on TIAA's businesses, strategic plans, financial performance and reporting, risk, key compliance policies and practices and governance responsibilities and structure. Trustees are encouraged to enroll in continuing education programs at TIAA's expense on topics associated with the Trustees' service on the Board. In addition, management periodically conducts internal educational sessions for the Trustees on various topics which may assist the Trustees in fulfilling their oversight responsibilities. Trustees are also encouraged to visit any of the Company's offices and arrange meetings with local management and employees in furtherance of their continuing education.

Governance Policies and Practices

Standards. The TIAA Board reviews and evolves its corporate governance policies and practices as appropriate. The Board's corporate governance policies take into consideration best practices and comply with applicable laws and regulations. The Board has adopted Governance Guidelines that provide the framework for fulfillment of the Board's corporate governance duties and responsibilities. Participants may access TIAA's key governance documents, including the Governance Guidelines, the Company's charter and bylaws, Code of Business Conduct, committee charters and the Trustee Conflict of Interest Policy, on the Company's website at tiaa.org/public/about-tiaa/corporate-governance-leadership/tiaa-overseers-trustees.

Communication with Trustees. Participants wishing to contact the TIAA Board or an individual Trustee may do so by sending a written communication to the Corporate Secretary's Office at TIAA, 730 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017-3206 or by sending an email to trustees@tiaa.org.

2018 Nominees for the TIAA Board of Trustees

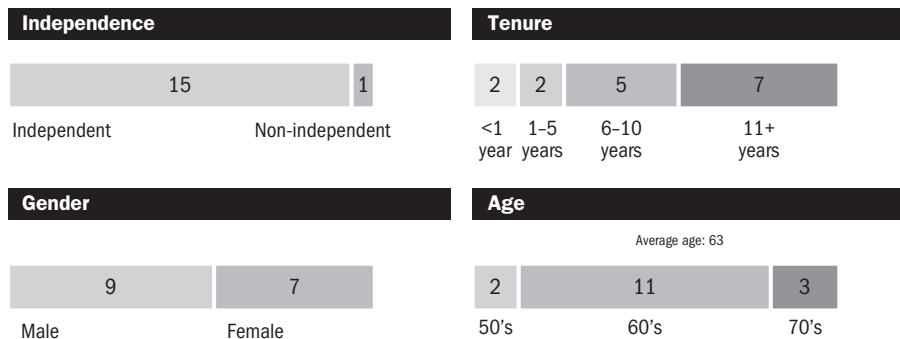

Trustee Nomination Process

In accordance with its charter, the Nominating and Governance Committee is responsible for nominating candidates to the TIAA Board and the Overseers. The Committee reviews the current composition of the TIAA Board and considers the specific needs of the Board to ensure an overall balance and range of specialized knowledge, skills, expertise and diversity to provide the foundation for a successful Board. In addition, the Committee regularly conducts an analysis of the appropriate mix of skill sets at the board level, which is intended to align the Board with the strategic direction of the organization. Based on this assessment, the Committee recommends trustee candidates. The Committee considers candidate recommendations from a variety of sources, including participants. The Committee evaluates each candidate's attributes individually and in the broader context of the Board's overall composition and the Company's current and future needs. In addition, the Committee annually evaluates each current Trustee’s overall contributions to the effective governance and oversight of TIAA if the Trustee is considered for re-nomination. Prior to nominating trustee candidates, the Committee consults with the Overseers.

Trustee Nominees

The Nominating and Governance Committee has nominated 16 candidates for election as Trustees of the TIAA Board. All candidates are currently members of the TIAA Board and will serve a one-year term if elected. The chart below highlights the composition of the nominated candidates.

The candidates have a broad range of experience that spans different industries, encompassing the business, philanthropic, academic and governmental sectors. Set forth below are highlights of the specific experience, key qualifications, attributes and skills of the Trustees that led the Nominating and Governance Committee to conclude that these individuals should continue to serve on the TIAA Board, including principal occupations and directorships held during the last five years.
