How to read your Brokerage Account Statement
Introduction

Your Brokerage Account Statement provides you with a concise, comprehensive picture of your financial status. At a glance, you can easily track your investments, monitor your account activity, evaluate your asset allocation, and view any changes that occur in the value of your account.

You also have the option to log on to your account and take advantage of a suite of online resources to help you better manage your accounts and investments. This includes viewing your employer and individual account holdings in a single view, improved self-service capabilities and advanced research capabilities.

1. Account Information

At the top of the first page of your statement, you will find information identifying your account. Your account number and the period covered by your statement appear on the top right. Your name and address, as well as your investment professional’s information, appear on the top left.

2. Portfolio at a Glance

This section provides you with an explanation of the changes in the value of your account. It offers a high-level overview of account activity, including cash deposits, cash withdrawals, dividends and interest, fees, and change in account value, to help you identify the inflow and outflow of assets in your account. Beginning and ending account values for the current statement period are also provided.

3. For Your Information (Messages)

Here you will find important messages and notices regarding your account. These messages may include industry-related topics and regulatory announcements. In addition, you may find information regarding new products and services available to you.

4. Asset Summary

This section provides a summary of your portfolio holdings, segregated by asset class. This information can be used to determine the approximate value of the various asset types held in your account as of the statement date. These asset classes are consolidated Portfolio Holdings summarized in one, easy-to-read section. For each asset class that you hold, the market value (based on prices as of the last day of the statement period) is displayed along

5. Open Orders

This section details open equity and option orders. These are orders that were not fully executed as of the close of business on the last day of the statement period. Limit and current price, as well as additional information for each security, are shown as of the statement date.

6. Portfolio Holdings

This section provides comprehensive details regarding your portfolio’s holdings. Organized into subsections and by investment type, this section indicates the quantity, description, market price (if available), market value, dividend and capital gain options, and other information on each security position as of the close of business on the last day of the statement period. In addition, the subsections display the opening and closing cash, margin, short, and money market fund balances.

1At least two asset classes must be equal to 2.5% or greater of the total account value for a pie chart to appear.
7. Transactions

This section provides a detailed list of transactions that were posted to your account since the last statement period. Transactions can be displayed in any one of three ways: by date, by security identification, or by transaction type. The process/settlement date is the date on which a transaction was posted to your account. The date that you initiated either the sale or the purchase of a security also appears in this section.
