How does the RTQ work?

The risk tolerance questionnaire (RTQ) is a tool that based on your self-reported responses, can help measure your general willingness and ability to withstand the risks inherent in investing in capital markets. This questionnaire measures risk preferences based on two factors: (1) how you say you feel about the trade-offs between expected returns and expected volatility, and (2) what you believe your emotional reactions would be to changes in your portfolio’s value, from both gains and losses.

Using a unit-weighted sum of your responses to the questions within this questionnaire, an overall risk score is generated to reflect your risk tolerance profile. Your score can then be mapped to the following risk tolerance profiles: Conservative, Moderately Conservative, Moderate, Moderately Aggressive and Aggressive.

Questions regarding potential returns or losses are meant to apply an average or estimated return for the asset classes depicted, to assist in the determination of risk tolerance, and are not meant to illustrate past or expected performance of the portfolios constructed by Morningstar Investment Management LLC or available through TIAA.

Your responses to this RTQ can help your financial professional discover information about your goals, your risk and return preferences, your anticipated responses to volatility, and other relevant information. The gathering of this information can help your financial professional better understand your financial situation by also asking for additional information about your assets, needs, preferences and goals. Based on this more complete understanding, your financial professional can help formulate your financial plan, investment strategy or recommend TIAA products and services (“investment portfolio”).

Limitations of the RTQ

There is no guarantee that this risk tolerance assessment tool or its scoring method completely assesses your tolerance for risk or attitudes about gains and losses. While the questionnaire can help inform your risk tolerance profile, you are ultimately responsible for selecting the risk tolerance profile that you are most comfortable using for your investment portfolio. The RTQ scores alone should not be the sole method for making this decision. Although the RTQ scoring process is objective, subjectivity cannot be completely eliminated. For example, you may struggle to understand the questions or may not have clearly defined risk preferences. Your financial professional can assist in walking through the questionnaire, but the risk tolerance profile used for your investment portfolio is your decision. Ultimately, with the help of your financial professional, you should work to determine your investment portfolio, which may represent a different asset mix than might be indicated by your risk tolerance score.

Additionally, although your Consultant may use the results of this questionnaire to help identify an investment portfolio recommendation, there is no guarantee that the resulting asset mix appropriately reflects your ability or willingness to withstand investment risk.

Please make sure to review all of the documents and disclosures associated with the investment portfolio to make fully informed decisions.

This Risk Tolerance Questionnaire is a tool made available to you through a license agreement between Morningstar Investment Management LLC and TIAA. The decision to use the RTQ tool is at the sole discretion of TIAA. This RTQ does not consider all factors necessary to make an investment decision (e.g., personal and financial information and investment objective). The results of the RTQ should not be viewed as advice or establishing any kind of advisory relationship with Morningstar Investment Management LLC. The use of the RTQ should not be construed as a form of endorsement by Morningstar Investment Management LLC of your investment portfolio, nor is Morningstar Investment Management LLC acting in the capacity of advisor to individual investors. Please consult with your Consultant to obtain relevant fund prospectuses and read them carefully prior to investing. Morningstar Investment Management LLC is a registered investment adviser and subsidiary of Morningstar, Inc. Morningstar Investment Management LLC is not affiliated with TIAA.

How to use your scores

To find your risk profiles, plot your time horizon score from page 3 and your risk tolerance score from page 5 on the grid below. For example, if your time horizon score is 6 and your risk tolerance score is 24, your portfolio is 2.

Identify your investment style

Once you identify your risk tolerance, you can choose an investment style. Whether you prefer a more hands-on approach or want to go with the flow, there are two typical types of investment approaches: active or passive.²

Actively managed investments

Active fund managers make deliberate—or active—decisions to buy, sell or hold securities. They conduct their own research to determine a method to strive to outperform a recognized market index.

Passively managed investments

Passive fund managers try to match the performance of an index—not beat it. They do not make ongoing buy, sell and hold decisions based on their research.

What’s an index?

It’s a group of investments intended to represent a particular sector of the market. For example, the S&P 500®, one of the most well-known indexes, tracks 500 large companies on the New York Stock Exchange. You cannot invest directly in an index.

² Please note that the terms active and passive refer to the management of the underlying funds in the portfolio models, and not the management of the overall models.
Finding your target allocation

Now, use your risk profile from page 6 to find your target allocation. The pie charts below show suggested allocations based on different time horizons and levels of risk tolerance.3

The Conservative portfolio is designed to potentially provide stability and protection from loss to investors who either have a short time horizon and/or a primary goal of avoiding potential loss. The stability of this portfolio comes at the expense of achieving potentially higher long-term returns.

The Moderate-Conservative portfolio primarily attempts to avoid short-term loss, but still seeks somewhat higher returns over the long term. To achieve higher potential returns, some fluctuations in investment value are to be expected.

The Moderate portfolio is designed for those who are equally concerned with risk and return. The objective for this portfolio is to provide returns that outpace inflation over the long term. Those using the suggested allocation for this portfolio should be comfortable with fluctuations in the portfolio’s value and occasional short-term loss.

The Moderate-Aggressive portfolio is designed for investors seeking greater accumulation over intermediate to long-term horizons. Those using the suggested allocation for this portfolio must be comfortable with more-than-average volatility and potential short-term losses to achieve the desired higher returns.

The Aggressive portfolio is designed for investors seeking the potential for even greater returns over a long-term horizon. Those using the suggested allocation for this portfolio must be comfortable with experiencing frequent short-term loss and extreme volatility in portfolio value in exchange for potentially higher returns over the long term.

Janus Henderson Investors is a global asset manager offering a full suite of actively managed investment products across asset classes. Established through the merger of Janus Capital and Henderson in 2017, our rich history as independent investment managers stretches back to 1934. From our origins in bottom-up, analysis-based strategies with a strong research-based approach to security selection, Janus Henderson today offers active management across equities, fixed income, alternatives and multi-asset strategies. We believe the notion of “connecting” is powerful—it has shaped our evolution and our world today.

At Janus Henderson, we seek to benefit clients through the connections we make. Connections enable strong relationships based on trust and insight as well as the flow of ideas among our investment teams and our engagement with companies. These connections are central to our values, to what active management stands for and to the long-term out performance we seek to deliver. Janus Henderson has more than 345 investment professionals, expertise across all major asset classes and clients spanning the globe, entrusting us with more than $401.6 billion.

We believe that sustainable alpha generation is possible through a combination of deep fundamental research, specialized investment teams, bottom-up portfolio construction, and high-conviction investing.
- Focus: Investment management is Jennison’s only business; our goal is to generate superior long-term investment outperformance. Our investment approach is based on rigorous fundamental research and results in conviction-based investing.
- Culture: Jennison is made up of deeply resourced, dedicated investment teams in which individual success is measured as collective investment outperformance on behalf of clients. Jennison equity portfolio managers average 30 years of industry experience and 17 years at the firm. Jennison equity research analysts average 20 years of industry experience and 11 years at the firm. Each investment capability is managed by dedicated portfolio managers who follow their own independent philosophy and process.
