This is a summary of the most common Brokerage fees. How much you pay for your brokerage account can vary depending on a number of factors. For example, each time you buy or sell a security, you will incur a transaction fee or commission, unless you purchase or redeem shares of the firm’s designated, no-transaction fee (NTF) mutual funds.

To learn more about some of the common costs associated with various brokerage transactions, review the following.

Equities and Options

Online Equity ETFs and Options	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ $7.95 per trade; add $2 per contract for options. ▪ $5.95 per trade for customers that receive a financial planning solution from their Wealth Management advisor; add $1 per contract for options.
