Portfolio Strategies

The Fund seeks a favorable long-term total return, mainly through capital appreciation, primarily from equity securities of large domestic companies. It normally invests at least 80% of its assets in large-cap equity securities that the Fund's management team believes are undervalued based on an evaluation of their potential worth. The Fund's management team uses a variety of comparative valuation criteria to determine whether a company might be undervalued, including numerous financial ratios such as stock price-to-book value, stock price-to-earnings and dividend yield. Particular emphasis is focused on companies with normalized earnings and high operating leverage. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its assets in foreign securities.

About the Benchmark

Russell 1000 Value Index measures the performance of those Russell 1000 companies with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values. You cannot invest directly in any index. A Note About Risks

Mutual fund investing involves risk; principal loss is possible. There is no guarantee the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved. Large companies are more mature and may grow more slowly than the overall market. Non-U.S. investments involve risks such as currency fluctuation, political and economic instability, lack of liquidity and differing legal and accounting standards. These and other risk considerations, such as active management, issuer, mid-cap, and style risks of value investing, are described in detail in the Fund's prospectus.

Before investing, carefully consider fund investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For this and other information that should be read carefully, please request a prospectus or summary prospectus from TIAA at 877-518-9161 or visit TIAA.org.

Portfolio Statistics Definitions

Beta is a measure of the volatility of a portfolio relative to the overall market. A beta less than 1.0 indicates lower risk than the market; a beta greater than 1.0 indicates higher risk than the market. Weighted Average Market Capitalization is the portfolio-weighted mean capitalizations of all equity securities. P/E Ratio of a stock is calculated by dividing the current price of the stock by its forecasted 12 months' earnings per share. The average of the price/earnings ratio of a fund is a weighted harmonic average of all the current P/E ratios (excluding negatives) of the stocks in the Fund's portfolio. This should not be construed as a forecast of the Fund's performance. Turnover Ratio is calculated by dividing the lesser of purchases or sales by the average value of portfolio assets during a period. Turnover is based on the portfolio's fiscal year end and is not annualized if the reporting period covers less than 12 months. Standard Deviation is a statistical measure of the historical volatility of a mutual fund or portfolio; the higher the number the greater the risk.
