Portfolio Strategies

The Fund seeks a favorable long-term total return, mainly through capital appreciation, from investments related to the natural resources sector. It normally invests at least 80% of its assets in securities of issuers that are primarily engaged in energy, metals, agriculture and other commodities, as well as related products and services. The Fund's management team focuses on companies of any capitalization size that it believes are resource-rich, have growth potential and trade at attractive valuation levels, regardless of their geographical location. The Fund may also invest in companies that it believes are well-positioned as suppliers to the natural resources sector. Under normal circumstances, the Fund will invest over 40% of its assets in foreign issuers, including those in emerging markets. The Fund is non-diversified.

A Word on Risk

Mutual fund investing involves risk; principal loss is possible. There is no guarantee the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved. Non-U.S. investments involve risks such as currency fluctuation, political and economic instability, lack of liquidity and differing legal and accounting standards. These risks are magnified in emerging markets. Securities directly and indirectly invested in natural resources are subject to increased market volatility, natural events, inflationary pressure and national and international politics. The relative illiquidity of such investments, including precious metals, could result in difficulty in their disposal in a timely and favorable manner. Non-diversified funds invest in a limited number of issuers and are therefore more vulnerable to changes in the market value of a single issuer or group of issuers than diversified funds. These and other risk considerations, such as active management, issuer, and industry/sector concentration risks, are described in detail in the Fund's prospectus.

Before investing, carefully consider fund investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. For this and other information that should be read carefully, please request a prospectus or summary prospectus from Nuveen at 800-752-8700 or visit nuveen.com.

Portfolio Statistics Definitions

Beta is a measure of the volatility of a portfolio relative to the overall market. A beta less than 1.0 indicates lower risk than the market; a beta greater than 1.0 indicates higher risk than the market. Weighted Average Market Capitalization is the portfolio-weighted mean capitalizations of all equity securities. P/E Ratio of a stock is calculated by dividing the current price of the stock by its forecasted 12 months' earnings per share. The average of the price/earnings ratio of a fund is a weighted harmonic average of all the current P/E ratios (excluding negatives) of the stocks in the Fund's portfolio. This should not be construed as a forecast of the Fund's performance. Turnover Ratio is calculated by dividing the lesser of purchases or sales by the average value of portfolio assets during a period. Turnover is based on the portfolio's fiscal year end and is not annualized if the reporting period covers less than 12 months. Standard Deviation is a statistical measure of the historical volatility of a mutual fund or portfolio; the higher the number the greater the risk.
