The 2022 TIAA Employee Retention Survey

One in three employees are considering leaving their jobs this year. Communicating about retirement benefits could retain them.

Executive Summary – June 2022
More than 30% of employees say it is at least possible they will leave their job in 2022. Benefits, including retirement benefits, play a big role in this decision.

Changing employers

Importance of benefits when decisions on whether to leave current employer

Employees who are more likely to say benefits are important include those at companies with 1,000 or more employees, understand their retirement plan well, trust their employer.
Two in three employers says it has been harder to attract and retain employees in the last year. Nine in 10 expect this to continue over the next year.

Attracting and retaining talent

Difficulty in attracting/retaining talent in the past year

- Much harder: 20%
- Somewhat harder: 46%
- No different: 20%
- Somewhat easier: 11%
- Much easier: 3%

Issue for company in the next year

- Major issue: 44%
- Minor issue: 47%
- Not an issue: 10%

Employers who offer a 401(k) plan and those who rank their company’s benefits poorly are more likely to say attracting and retaining has been an issue.
Nearly 7 in 10 employees would like more information about their retirement plan or savings and think educational resources would be extremely or very helpful.

Employees think educational resources would be extremely or very helpful and seven in 10 would like more information about their retirement plan or savings.

- Seven in 10 think education on retirement savings planning and understanding their plan’s investment options would be helpful, both up from 2020 (from 63% and 66%, respectively).
- Interestingly, perceived helpfulness of nearly all resources spikes for employees in their 30s, indicating that to be a crucial age range for providing help and education.
- Black and Hispanic employees also express more interest in resources.

Top four helpful participant resources

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Resource</th>
<th>% extremely/very helpful</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Education to help with retirement savings planning</td>
<td>71% ↑</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education to understand investment options</td>
<td>71% ↑</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education to help improve overall financial wellbeing</td>
<td>70%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education to help develop a retirement strategy</td>
<td>68%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Helpfulness of retirement savings planning education by age

- 73% in 25–29
- 81% in 30–39
- 64% in 40–49
- 69% in 50–59
- 65% in 60–70
About two-thirds of employees view their employers as a trusted source on retirement-related advice and improving their financial wellness.

Employers as a trusted source

- On retirement-related information and advice
  - Employees: Agree: 69% (27% strongly agree, 43% somewhat agree, 20% neither agree nor disagree, 8% somewhat disagree, 3% strongly disagree)
  - Employers: Agree: 80% (30% strongly agree, 51% somewhat agree, 14% neither agree nor disagree, 10% somewhat disagree, 5% strongly disagree)

- To help improve personal financial wellness
  - Employees: Agree: 65% (26% strongly agree, 39% somewhat agree, 22% neither agree nor disagree, 10% somewhat disagree, 3% strongly disagree)
  - Employers: Agree: 73% (29% strongly agree, 44% somewhat agree, 22% neither agree nor disagree, 8% somewhat disagree, 2% strongly disagree)
Employees say employers can improve their trust by providing more education, communication about benefits, and providing better benefits.

Ways to increase trust in employer as a source of retirement information/advice

- Education/resources: 22%
- Communicate/clarify benefits: 19%
- Increase benefits/match: 15%
- Provide access to financial professionals: 11%
- Be more transparent, empathetic, approachable: 5%
- Increase company's retirement knowledge/expertise: 3%
- Don't want/need employer involved: 5%
- Nothing: 7%
- Already trust employer: 9%

"Provide financial literacy classes."

"They kind of just enroll you and leave it up to you to figure this stuff out. I got an initial package but it's an incredibly long and confusing document breaking things down."

"More consistent communication, perhaps once per quarter. I rarely received information about updates or changes."
A sense of responsibility for employee wellness can foster trust. Trust, in turn, can help improve understanding and satisfaction of their retirement plan.

Seven in 10 employees agree their employer is a trusted source on retirement-related information and advice and 65% say the same about financial wellness. Employees with trust in their employer in these areas are more likely to:
- Have a better understanding and higher satisfaction with their retirement plan
- Think their employer puts in effort around financial wellness, retirement preparedness, and financial literacy
- Place higher importance of benefits when making decisions of to change employer

Fifty-four percent of employers say their company has a high level of responsibility for their employees’ retirement preparedness. Another 46% say the same for financial wellness.
- These are both down from about three-quarters of employers saying the same in 2020.
- Similar to 2020, less than a quarter of employees see significant efforts being made in these areas.

Employers who have a high level of responsibly are more likely to:
- Emphasize access to Guaranteed Lifetime Income (GLI) and be more likely to offer in-plan GLI annuities
- Think their benefits provide an advantage in attracting/retaining employees
- Think employees are satisfied with benefits
- Think employees trust their employer

Any guarantees are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing company.
More effort can be made in communicating benefits as a tool to help with recruitment and retention challenges.

While most employers say they intentionally use benefits as a retention and recruitment tool, benefit communication could be improved.

• Just 16% of employees say they received information on the retirement plan before they were hired and 14% say the same about communication during staff meetings.

• Only about a third of employers say they communicate about their plan during these potential recruitment and retention opportunities.

Employer communication around retirement benefits

- Annually at open enrollment
  - Employees: 54%
  - Employers: 65%
  - Recruitment gap: 11%

- First start working at company
  - Employees: 42%
  - Employers: 60%
  - Recruitment gap: 18%

- Before they become an employee
  - Employees: 16%
  - Employers: 36%
  - Recruitment gap: 20%

- Periodic meetings or webinars
  - Employees: 23%
  - Employers: 35%

- Periodic e-mail updates
  - Employees: 41%
  - Employers: 35%

- Periodically during general staff meetings
  - Employees: 14%
  - Employers: 34%
  - Retention gap: 20%
When it comes to retaining employees, employers believe their company offers benefits that provide an advantage.

View of benefits for retaining employees

When it comes to retaining employees, employers believe their company offers benefits that provide an advantage.

Employers who view their benefits as an advantage are more likely to have a high responsibility for their employees’ financial and retirement wellness, offer a DB plan, and rate their benefits highly.
Seven in 10 employers use retirement benefit communications as a tool to retain employees. Eight in 10 say they use these benefits as a recruitment tool.

Retirement benefits and retaining/recruiting employees

- Company intentionally uses communications/education around their retirement benefits to retain employees
  - Yes: 69%
  - No: 27%
  - Not sure: 4%

- Use retirement benefits offered as a recruitment tool
  - Yes: 78%
  - No: 20%
  - Not sure: 2%
Compared to 2020, employers are more likely to emphasize attracting and retaining employees as a top reason their company offers a retirement plan.

Top reasons company offers DC retirement plan

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reason</th>
<th>Ranked 1st</th>
<th>Ranked 2nd</th>
<th>2020</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>To attract and retain employees</td>
<td>38%</td>
<td>18%</td>
<td>57%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To encourage employees to save for retirement</td>
<td>27%</td>
<td>24%</td>
<td>51%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To help your employees feel financially secure</td>
<td>10%</td>
<td>26%</td>
<td>36%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To enable your employees to be able to retire at or near a normal retirement age</td>
<td>15%</td>
<td>15%</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To ensure employees will have sufficient income in retirement</td>
<td>11%</td>
<td>17%</td>
<td>27%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Compared to 2020:
- Attract and retain employees: ↑ 47%
- Encourage employees to save for retirement: ↑ 42%
- Help your employees feel financially secure: ↓ 43%
- Enable employees to retire at or near a normal retirement age: 29%
- Ensure employees will have sufficient income in retirement: ↓ 39%
Employers say their company feels a high sense of responsibility for the mental health and retirement preparedness of their employees.

Level of company’s responsibility

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Area</th>
<th>Very high</th>
<th>High</th>
<th>Moderate</th>
<th>Low</th>
<th>Very low</th>
<th>None</th>
<th>Net high</th>
<th>Decrease vs. 2020</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Overall mental health of your employees</td>
<td>25%</td>
<td>37%</td>
<td>28%</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td></td>
<td>62%</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overall retirement preparedness of your employees</td>
<td>20%</td>
<td>34%</td>
<td>40%</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>4%</td>
<td>54% (↓ vs. 73% in 2020)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overall financial wellness of your employees</td>
<td>17%</td>
<td>30%</td>
<td>41%</td>
<td>9%</td>
<td>3%</td>
<td>1%</td>
<td>46% (↓ vs. 72% in 2020)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Providing a source of GLI in retirement to your employees</td>
<td>17%</td>
<td>25%</td>
<td>33%</td>
<td>16%</td>
<td>5%</td>
<td>4%</td>
<td>42%</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proving resources to help with debt management</td>
<td>11%</td>
<td>23%</td>
<td>36%</td>
<td>21%</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>4%</td>
<td>33%</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Except for mental health, for each area, employers more likely to say higher responsibility include those at a company with 500 or more employees and provide a DB plan. Decreases from 2020 are driven by 401(k) employers.
Most employees report their employer makes at least somewhat of an effort to improve their financial wellness, retirement preparedness, and literacy.

Effort employer makes to improve current employees’ finances

- Financial wellness: Net significant/somewhat: 70% (↑ vs. 64% in 2020)
  - Employer makes a significant effort: 23%
  - Somewhat of an effort: 47%
  - Minimal effort: 24%
  - No effort: 6%

- Financial preparedness for retirement: Net significant/somewhat: 65% (↑ vs. 59% in 2020)
  - Employer makes a significant effort: 24%
  - Somewhat of an effort: 40%
  - Minimal effort: 28%
  - No effort: 8%

- Financial literacy: Net significant/somewhat: 61% (↑ vs. 53% in 2020)
  - Employer makes a significant effort: 20%
  - Somewhat of an effort: 41%
  - Minimal effort: 30%
  - No effort: 9%

In each area, those more likely to say their employer is making an effort include employees at companies of 1,000 or more employees, those who understand their plan well, and those who trust their employer.
Employees and employers agree companies have increased their focus on health and safety since the pandemic. However, employers are much more likely to say the same for financial wellness and retirement preparedness.

Employer’s increased focus since the pandemic

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Focus Area</th>
<th>Employees</th>
<th></th>
<th>Employers</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Your company’s focus on the health and safety</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>27%</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>39%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of employees</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>37%</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>39%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>64%</td>
<td></td>
<td>78%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your company’s focus on improving the financial</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>14%</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>12%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wellness of employees</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>22%</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>51%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>36%</td>
<td></td>
<td>63%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your company’s focus on improving the retirement</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>14%</td>
<td>Increased</td>
<td>15%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>preparedness of employees</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>19%</td>
<td>somewhat</td>
<td>43%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>33%</td>
<td></td>
<td>58%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Compared to 2020, employees are less likely to say their company has increased their focus on health and safety (75%) but more likely to say they are focused on improving retirement preparedness (25%). For employers, the rates from 2020 have not changed.
Disclosures and Methodology

This material is for informational or educational purposes only and does not constitute fiduciary investment advice under ERISA, a securities recommendation under all securities laws, or an insurance product recommendation under state insurance laws or regulations. This material does not consider any specific objectives or circumstances of any particular investor or suggest any specific course of action. Investment decisions should be made based on the investor’s own objectives and circumstances.

Investment, insurance and annuity products are not FDIC insured, are not bank guaranteed, are not deposits, are not insured by any federal government agency, are not condition to any banking service or activity, and may lose value.

Annuity account options are available through contracts issued by TIAA or CREF. Annuity Account options are available through contracts issued by TIAA or CREF. These contracts are designed for retirement or other long-term goals, and offer a variety of income options, including lifetime income. Any guarantees under annuities issued by TIAA are subject to TIAA's claims-paying ability.

TIAA-CREF Individual & Institutional Services, LLC, Member FINRA, distributes securities products. Annuity contracts and certificates are issued by Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America (TIAA) and College Retirement Equities Fund (CREF), New York, NY. Each is solely responsible for its own financial condition and contractual obligations.

©2022 Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America-College Retirement Equities Fund, 730 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017

The 2022 Employee Retention Survey was conducted online from Dec. 21, 2021 to Jan. 7, 2022 surveying 1,008 retirement plan participants ages, ages 25 to 70 employed full-time at a company with 50+ employees and participates in a 401(k) or 403(b) plan, and 500 benefit plan decision makers employed full-time at a company with 50+ employees and offers a 401(k) or 403(b) plan.

Data illustrated in graphs may not equal 100% due to rounding.